Intro: C - G - Am - F - C - G - F - C

1. <sup>C</sup> Almost heaven, <sup>Am</sup> West Virginia,
<sup>G</sup> <sup>F</sup> <sup>C</sup>
Blueridge Mountain, Shenandoah River.

<sup>Am</sup>
Life is old there, older than the trees,
<sup>G</sup> <sup>F</sup> <sup>C</sup>
younger than the mountains, growing like the trees.

<sup>C</sup> <sup>G</sup> <sup>Am</sup> <sup>F</sup>
Country Roads, take me home, to the place, I belong

<sup>C</sup> <sup>G</sup>
West Virginia, Mountain Mama,

<sup>F</sup> <sup>C</sup>
take me home, country roads.

<sup>C</sup> <sup>Am</sup>
2. All my memories get around her,
<sup>G</sup> <sup>F</sup> <sup>C</sup>
miners` ladies, strangers to blue waters.

<sup>Am</sup>
Dark and dusty, painted on the sky,
<sup>G</sup> <sup>F</sup> <sup>C</sup>
misty taste of moonshine, tear-drops in my eyes.

+ CHORUS

<sup>Am</sup> <sup>G</sup> <sup>C</sup> <sup>C7</sup>
I hear her voice in the morning how she calls me, <sup>F</sup> <sup>C</sup> <sup>G</sup>
radio reminds me of my home far away, <sup>Am</sup> <sup>Bb</sup> <sup>F</sup> <sup>C</sup> driving down the road I get a feeling that I should have <sup>G</sup> <sup>G7</sup>
been home yesterday, yesterday.

+ CHORUS + CHORUS + take me home, country roads,
<sup>G</sup> <sup>C</sup> - G - C

take me home, country roads.
