

The Apologist - Mary Mother of God

Let me tell you 'bout a lady that I love so much
When I see her my soul erupts
To live a day without her is so tough
Even more than water my soul needs her
When temptations come so rough
Just say our lady's name and get a breatha
And when the devil's hauntin' and tauntin'
Just sing an "Ave" and then he'll leave ya
The persecuted and pursuers
Truly go to her and she'll free ya
And when depressed and down in the dumps
She will always come and relieve ya
With many needs, feelin' overcome
Then bend your knees and she will heed ya
So give praise to the Mother of Son,
Jesus has given us an interceder

*Yo, Queen of Queens I'll sing and scream
She's the unique, complete with meekness
Undeclared, truly the sweetest
Mary the Mother of God
Yo, Queen of Queens I'll sing and scream
She's the unique, complete with meekness
Undeclared, convert to Jesus
Mary the Mother of God*

Let me tell you 'bout a lady that I hold so dearly
I hope the Protestants now hear me
Cause my faith in her is not weary
Devoted to her and I say so clearly
I hold the rosary close to me and Pray it everyday just to have her near me
Very Mary in every sanctuary
In honor of her as a saint, can you feel me?
"But doing this takes away from Jesus!"
What, do you believe this now tell me now really
I see it's true you haven't read St. Luke chapter 1 and 2
Now get real really
Devotion to the Mother of God
Will only raise up the devotion to Jesus
So if your prayer's been weak for a while
I suggest you pray to her she'll increase it

*Queen of Queens I'll sing and scream
She's the unique, complete with meekness
Undeclared, truly the sweetest
Mary the Mother of God
Yo, Queen of Queens I'll sing and scream
She's the unique, complete with meekness
Undeclared, convert to Jesus
