

What's Coming Up Sheet Jan. 14-18

We had a great week back! It took a few days to get back into the routine, but we all agree it is NICE to be back into the routine.

In L.A., next week we will read a story called A Trip to the Firehouse and will focus on the skill of main idea and details. We took the spelling pre-test today so that means we are back on track for taking our spelling test on Thursday.

In Religion we are going strong! We are starting the Unit on Reconciliation and are so excited to be learning all about it. Today we read a story of forgiveness called Joseph and his coat of many colors. Ask your child about it! We did not have time to get to our Good News so I put it in your child's yellow folder. Please read through it with them.

Also next week in Religion we will get to learn all about Ghana on Tuesday when Father Mark will teach us as part of our School Wide Social Justice program.

In Social Studies next week, we will finish up the chapter on Monday and I will pass out notes for the students to study. On Tuesday we will have a CHEW and REVIEW game. On Wednesday the book and a study guide will go home and on Thursday we will take our test.

In Math, we will work for three days on a new concept called partial sums addition. Please be patient with your child as this takes a few days to sink in! :)

And...On Friday of next week, hopefully we will be able to start our next unit in Science on ROCKS!
