

Reimer's Review

May 23, 2008

What's Coming Up?

- No School Monday the 26th!
- Tuck Everlasting Test: Wednesday, May 28th.
- Science final test: Thursday, May 29th.
- Unit 13 Vocabulary Test: Friday, May 30th. This will be the last vocabulary test of the year.

Become an Expert!

Expert presentations were fantastic! Thank you for your help at home with visual aids, speeches and editing. The students enjoyed giving their presentations and listening to the different speeches. The students truly became 4th grade "experts!"

Attention Mom!

Please continue to help your child over the long weekend with his/her collection for the special father's day present!

Spring Concert DVD

If you would like to order a DVD of this year's Spring Concert, there is a form in your child's Friday folder. Each DVD is $5. Please make checks payable to Fran Roby.

Calling all Textbooks!

If you have any pink math books or green social studies books at home, please send them to school ASAP! We're getting a final count of everything as the year comes to an end. Thank you!

Have a wonderful Memorial Day weekend,
Ms. Reimer
