

What's Coming Up?

September 24-28

We had another great week in Room 316!

Rodeo Roundup Marathon at OLG

Today was our Marathon Kick-off and Pep Fest. This year's theme is Rodeo Roundup and we went to a pep fest where Mrs. Trenary was a horse dancing!

The money collection envelopes went home today. Remember, the collection period is shorter than in years past, only two weeks, beginning now! The goal for each child is $100. Each child who brings in that goal will get a "reward"!! Marathon is Oct. 6th from 9-12 at OLG. See you then!!

Important Notes

Next week we will do practice test preparation for the MAT/OLSAT testing. Testing dates are October 1,2,4,8, and 9.

Parent coffee - September 28th from 2:45-4:00 p.m. at the OLG Dining Room. If you have any questions, please call our Room Parents:
Mary Busch 952-285-4437
Jean Roskam (Trembath) 952-996-0050

Next Week...

Religion - Next week we will review the 7 principles of Social Justice and begin our Columban Mission unit on Fiji.

Math - We will continue to review coins and number patterns. Homelinks begin Wednesday. Please check your child's work, sign, and return the next day. I will not send back home.

Language Arts - Our focus story of the week will be Julius. The focus skill will be distinguishing between fantasy and realism. We took our first spelling test today with smashing success. Keep up the great work everyone! This week's test is in your child's Yellow Homework Folder. Next week's list is attached to this newsletter.

Social Studies - We will begin reading about America's People.

Science - We will continue to track weather and learn about cloud formations.

Blessings,
Ms. Hiemenz

Julius

Spelling Words

The short e, o, and u sounds

short e sound - wet, let

short o sound - job, mop

short u sound- nut, fun

fox

wet

nut

job

leg

fun

went

mop

hug

from any of

Challenge Words

block

every