

September 21st, 2007

Hello from third grade! In Religion this week, we learned about the country of Chile. We talked about Jesus calling us to help those in need who don't have as much as we do. In Language Arts this week, we read our first story Cliff Hanger, learned how to write a complete sentence, learned short vowel words and learned how to write a paragraph. We were busy! In Math, we will be finishing the first unit in our Everyday Math book. We will be reviewing at the end of the week to prepare ourselves for an assessment on Friday the 28th. Your child will be bringing home a review packet to help them study at home. In Social Studies, we have finished learning about the seven continents and four oceans. Next week we will begin our first Science unit on the Solar System. It should be an exciting week for the kids!

Don't Forget:

- Marathon donation collections start on Monday! Bring in your $100 to receive your bandana.

Next Week:

Monday	Return Friday Folder PE & Mobile Lab
Tuesday	Art & Spanish
Wednesday	Boy or Girl? Mrs. Krenn will have her baby:) Mass Library
Thursday	Computers & Music
Friday	Spelling Test: The Ballad of Mulan Unit 1 Math Assessment PE, Music and Spanish

I have truly enjoyed my time so far with your children. I will look forward to seeing everyone again in January.

Mrs. Krenn